STATEMENTS

Remarks of the Spokesman of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan about the Sudden Death of Holbrooke.

14 December 2010 11:31 Qari Yousaf Ahamadi

According to credible news agencies of the world, the American president's Special Envoy for Afghanistan and Pakistan, Richard Holbrooke, died in George Washington's University hospital at the age of 69. He had been suffering from a heart's disease for the past days.

Appointed on 22nd January 2009, as special envoy for Afghanistan/ Pakistan, Holbrooke was keeping an eye on the Afghan issue. Some times ago, he told reporters that he had been passing through a difficult phase of his life, exerting crippling and sapping pressure on him. He passed out in his exclusive office for Afghanistan and regional affairs on Friday last, following his above-mentioned reveals and his life of toils and fatigues ended after admission into a hospital where he breathed his last yesterday.

The American rulers have not made any remarks about the cause of his sudden death in view of the sensitivity of the issue but rumors have it that this giant of the American politics and diplomacy became ill with a heart disease when his previous fame and credibility came under question after the unremitting failures of the mission of Afghanistan and his facing the difficult task. The protracted Afghan war and the descending trajectory of the Americans' handling of the warfare in the country had had a lethal dent on Holbrook's health as a high-ranking American official. He was grappling with a constant psychological stress. Emergence of this untoward phenomenon as an off-shoot of the Afghan issue is not now a strange thing. The same was the case with the former Soviet Union as the crisis touched its climax. Former Soviet leaders Brezhnev, Konstantin Cherninkove and Vladimir Andropov had heart attacks in a short time distance before the coming to scene of Michael Gorbachove. They relieved themselves of the hard task of the Afghan mission by retreating into the lap of death.

The recent symptoms are indicating that an outbreak of the same epidemic diseases has started in the political and military echelons of America. A few months ago, an American four stars general, general David Peteraeus, fainted during a senate hearing when he faced tough questions as regards the issue of Afghanistan. The end of Holbrooke, the fate of general Mc Crystal and the defense Secretary Robert Gate's warning to step down show that the war of Afghanistan is heavily weighing down on the psyche of the American military and political high-ups. Some of them lighten their burden by simply going to the other world and others, while being still alive, choose to avoid shouldering the mission.

The sudden death of a high-ranking American diplomat happens in a time that American strategists under the chair of Obama have been reviewing the issue of Afghanistan for the past few days. They will expectedly announce their decision soon.

We believe Holbrooke's timely death could have a didactic effect on the American strategists, teaching them many things to learn. In view of the American entanglement in the aggravating swamp of Afghanistan, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan calls on the American powers-that-be to abandon their dream of military domination and colonial sway in Afghanistan. Their formulation of new military strategies will never change the imminent defeat into a victory in the country. Still if they are bent on continuing with the status quo, they will face many unexpected events and imbroglios. Their political and military circles will have to grapple with constant crisis and untoward situations. Nothing more than that, they will achieve.

Qari Yousaf Ahamadi

Spokesman of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.

Response of the Islamic Emirate to Obama's Review of the Strategy

Friday, 17 December 2010 11:23

Last night, American defeated President Barack Obama unveiled review of his failed strategy. One year ago, Obama had announced the strategy aimed at bolstering the tempo of the invading American forces in Afghanistan and thwarting the Jihadic activities of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan. Having confidence in the help of the Almighty Allah (SwT) and in the ultimate victory of the legitimate Jihad of the Muslim people of Afghanistan against the invading Americans and their Allies, the Islamic Emirate responds to the review of the strategy by Obama as follows:

1. Obama unveils review of the strategy in a time that they left no stone unturned in Afghanistan to beef up the occupation but all their efforts have failed. Now he has come with the review of the strategy to present it before the American public and the public of the world in an effort to distract the attention from his failed strategy; to buoy up a new hope and keep people occupied in illusory expectations. However, the review of the strategy by Obama proves that his last year's strategy with all other overseas schemes have faced frustration and failure because the substance of these schemes and strategy do not coincide with the ground realities in Afghanistan.
2. The past nine years have showed that the foreign troops surge and emphasis on military approach is a failed replica for achievement of victory by the foreign occupation in Afghanistan, never being in a position to play a role in transformation of the status quo in the country. This is the hard fact which Obama has also conceded, though indirectly, by resorting to reviewing the strategy.
3. Obama announced review of his strategy while thousands of people were demonstrating against the strategy in front of the White House. One day ago, an American intelligence agency, in its report, had expressed concern about American military setbacks in Afghanistan - in other words, an ultimate defeat that the rulers of the White House would have to accept it one day as a bitter reality.
4. Obama announced review of his strategy amidst his assertions regarding relative military advancement in some undisclosed areas of Afghanistan but all know that the ground realities are contrary to what he claims. More Americans have been killed in Afghanistan following the announcement of the said strategy.
5. The Obama strategy for Afghanistan not only has failed in the military field but has had no achievement at civilian and Administration level. All American programs in Afghanistan have faced failure and humiliation, up to this very day, after the announcement of the strategy.
6. In view of common Afghans, the strategy has only resulted in helping the puppet Karzai government remain in power; spread corruption, insecurity, grievances, incompetence of officials, killings of thousands of civilians during American operations. These are the consequences of the strategy.

7. In our opinion, the review of the strategy will have no achievement; will follow the path of Obama's previous strategy which has already failed in practice and will not yield any positive message for the Americans. The continuation of the strategy at the current level without any change in its content symbolizes a defeat in view of its past record.

8. The only point which attracts attention in this review is the drawdown of America forces in Afghanistan next year. This is the bitter consequences which the American people are grappling with after losing thousands of American soldiers and spending hundreds of billions of dollars.

9. The Islamic Emirate will continue to stand by its unwavering stance as regards the review of the strategy as it was emphasizing on continuation of legitimate struggle against the invading American and all foreign forces in order to foil the strategy. The Islamic Emirate will not spare any sacrifice in the way of independence of its prideful country and Muslim people and establishment of an Islamic regime.

10. The Islamic Emirate believes, peace and stability will not return to Afghanistan unless and until all foreign forces pull out of the country. The unremitting continuation of foreign interference will pave the way for more casualties and destructions. So rationally, the foreigners should start the withdrawal of the occupying forces now—a task which they would have to do ultimately at a later stage. Thus they will save themselves from the heavy losses in life and equipment which they are facing as a result of the war of Afghanistan. Likewise, the oppressed and miserable people of Afghanistan will also find salvation from the illegitimate invasion and atrocities of America. This is the mechanism of the solution.

The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.

Statement of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan Regarding the Condemnation of the 31st Anniversary of the Red Army Invasion of Afghanistan

26 December 2010

The 6th Jaddi (the Hijri Lunar year) which coincides with 27th December, is the day of the former Soviet Union's aggression against Afghanistan. Three decades ago, on this day, 700 soldiers of the Red Army dressed in the uniform of the Afghan Army killed Hafizulla Amin, the former communist ruler of Afghanistan at Taj Beg Palace, near the capital Kabul. With this, 80,000 Red Army soldiers entered Afghanistan through land and air which, at one point, reached 150,000 soldiers. To confront the coward aggression of their northern neighbor--the former Soviet Union-- the Afghans chose the path of armed Jihad as per the requirement of their religious obligation and other humane values. The Soviets' invasion expedited the tempo of the struggle which had already been going on against the communist government, giving it a new impetus. The Soviet troops remained engaged in a military muscle showdown against the freedom-loving and Islamist people of Afghanistan almost for ten years from December 1979 to February 1989. After passage of a few years; reviewing and revision of new strategies and troops re-enforcement, they were not able to have a tangible achievement. Contrarily, the situation had slipped into a deepening crisis, following the prolongation of the war and expansion of battles. The decrepit Soviet Union's economy was not strong enough to fund the aggression. Hence, the last ruler of the former Soviet Union, Mikhail Gorbachev admitted the bitter reality in 1989, saying openly, the crisis of Afghanistan was a bleeding wound for the Soviet Union. He promised to put an end to the invasion.

The struggle against the Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan and the Soviets ultimate defeat came to be known epically as the miracle of the century. The Afghans proved once again as saviors of the world from the fangs of another global anaconda. The rulers of the Soviet Union themselves conceded that historically, the invasion was their big mistake—ushering in collapse of the empire existing by the name of the Soviet Union; bringing to an end the rule of the communist empire in central Asia and Eastern Europe; dissolving the Warsaw pact and crumbling into pieces the Wall of Berlin. Consequently, the spell of awe and fear from the Soviet Union which had gripped the globe, melted away simultaneously. After the disintegration of the Red Empire, as a result of the Afghan Jihad, the stage was set for the Western Empire under the leadership of USA to exercise unipolarism and arrogance in the world. Instead of taking a lesson from the shameful end of the invading Soviets, the American arrogant authority, contrarily, turned to colonizing and oppressing miserable people. This gun boat approach on the part of the Americans led to the Americans attacking the miserable people of Afghanistan like the former Soviet Union had done this before; to commence a bloodbath against the oppressed people and occupy the country itself by dint of advanced weapons. The Americans did fulfill their wicked designs practically. At the start, like the former Soviet Union, they had thought, that it was easy to swallow and ingest Afghanistan. The present rulers of the setting puppet regime had encouraged the White House to invade Afghanistan. Thus, they deceived them and used their power for realization of their own whims of power-grabbing. Even now, they are trying to keep the Americans unaware of the ground realities in Afghanistan—encouraging them to unleash further atrocities and brutalities on the common people.

The Global insatiable colonialism as per its trait has deprived the brave people of Afghanistan of their freedom, ironically, under the misleading slogan of democracy. They have packed the prisons of Kandahar, Bagram and other tens of prisons with the innocent Afghans; has brought about an atmosphere of terror and fear throughout the country as a result of night raids against the houses of the common people. They think, the tactic of terrorizing and oppressing people will vouchsafe them victory, or they will subjugate the Afghans through force and coercion. But despite their showdown of their military might during the past decade, neither they have stabilized the country nor did they silence the Jihadic resistance of the Afghans. If God willing, Afghanistan will prove to become a bleeding wound for the invaders once again. The global colonialist power will breathe its last here.

On this 31st anniversary of the former Soviet Union's invasion, while condemning the invasion of the Soviets, and believing it as an incendiary spark which kept the 3-decade long war of Afghanistan ignited, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, meanwhile, remind the Americans to learn lesson from the shameful fate of the invading Soviets by using sagacity and rationale and immediately pull their invading troops out of Afghanistan.

Response of the Islamic Emirate in Reaction to the UNO Recent Report on Civilian Casualties.

The United Nations Organization has claimed in its recent report that, the graph of civilian casualties in Afghanistan has spiraled up by 20% in the first ten months of the current year in comparison to the same period last year. The report is one among series of reports released in this regard. The UN has not given information about the credibility of the original sources of the data but added that in the current year, 2412 civilians have been killed in battles in Afghanistan, 76% by Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate (as per their claim). This partial and politically-motivated report of the United Nations has been published in a time that the UNO is yet to respond to the reservations and concerns raised by the Islamic Emirate regarding the UN reports on civilian casualties. Ironically, the UNO has been continuing to publish such reports for the past years, accusing Mujahideen of having committed civilian casualties. The Islamic Emirate believes, these reports are politically-motivated and tailored to meet the interests of America. So it has demanded an investigation to find out the veracity of the reports. Unfortunately, the UNO has constantly been publishing baseless reports and is not ready to take steps to substantiate their credibility and trustworthiness.

Once again, the so-called advocates of human rights have raised the issue of civilian casualties for achievement of political and propaganda points but are not ready to tackle the issue practically and conduct investigation in this respect. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan believes, the recent report of the United Nations is based on figures, being their own guesswork, and, therefore, categorically refutes them.

The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is of the opinion that the release of the report is a propaganda stunt aimed at concealing American brutalities. In the past nine years, the invaders have killed tens of thousands of civilians which tantamount to a genocide, which is still under way at the hands of the merciless Americans as per a well-laid out plan, particularly, it has been going on in far-fetched rural localities and villages in the past few years to terrorize people so that they will have to abstain from struggling against the foreign invasion and occupation of Afghanistan for the obtainment of their legitimate rights and independence. The operations by the enemy in Kandahar and the night raids strategy of the American general Petraeus is an example on hand. As a result, thousands of civilian Afghans have been martyred, wounded, made homeless and detained. A great number of common people have lost their lives, as a result of cruise missiles attacks, carpet bombing and armed encounters during the Kandahar operations by the enemy. Whole villages have been razed to ground. Almost 50% of inhabitants of Dand, Panjwai, Zeday and Arghandab districts have been displaced from their homes and hearths and from their plantation fields. The Islamic Emirate is intending to release a video film in near future about all these civilian casualties. This is an iceberg of the crimes which are being perpetrated by the American invaders in all parts of the country around the clock. Undoubtedly, the UNO authors of the civilian casualties report may not have bothered to have an inkling of what have actually happened.

We openly tell the UN, your report will be effective only in misleading those who are not interested in knowing the ground realities in Afghanistan. But the people of Afghanistan have been witnessing the realities with their own eyes. They know pretty well the identity of those who are notoriously and historically known as murderers at world level; those who have built the walls of their empire on the skulls and blood of the masses; those who have pushed the people of Iraq and Afghanistan and all miserable and peace-loving people of the globe into the oven of war. The Islamic Emirate believes, the release of these partial reports will only damage the credibility of the UNO. They have already harmed the World Body and it will further lose its veracity in the eyes of the people.

ISLAMIC EMIRATE OF AFGHANISTAN

Response of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan in Reaction to Senator Lindsay Graham Remarks to Maintain us Permanent Bases in Afghanistan.

04 January 2011

A Republican Senator Lindsey Graham in an interview with NBC Television has said that USA should maintain permanent military bases in Afghanistan. He has claimed, the bases would be beneficial for the region and in the combat against the Taliban.

His remarks definitely lift the curtain from the colonialist motives of America which the Islamic Emirate has been trying in the past decade to draw to them, attention of the people of the world. In fact, the invading America wants to establish her dominance over the region and the world under the so-called war on terror. Thus, they are trying to deprive the masses from their inalienable rights. In view of this, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan would like to spell out its response as follows:

1. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan categorically rejects the suggestion by the Republican senator.

America's intention to maintain permanent bases in Afghanistan would mean extending the occupation indefinitely. This illegitimate step is never acceptable to any Islamist and patriotic Afghan. The Muslim people of Afghanistan and the Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate will continue their struggle against the occupation and other ploys of America until and unless Afghanistan wins its deserved place among the comity of nations as an independent country.

2. The maintenance of permanent bases in Afghanistan by America will usher in law and order situation as well as social, cultural and economic problems for Afghanistan and the region. They will deprive the regional people of their natural economic and academic advancement. Current explosions at congested places in cities, mosques, religious seminaries and demonstrations are the ugly upshot of the invading America's plots. Therefore, neither the people of the region nor the freedom-loving Afghans will ever accept the permanent bases in Afghanistan.

3. Remarks by high-ranking figures of the invading America elucidate the fact that the war on terror was a phony drama conceived and staged by Washington. Their real goal was to occupy Afghanistan and maintain domination over the region. The relevant facts crop up one by one with the passage of time. The Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate will continue their struggle against these conspiracies until they reach a victorious end.

4. The invading America and her Allies have no capability to face the Mujahideen in a broad day light in view of their constant frustration during the decade-long showdown of muscles. They raid houses in the stillness of the night, killing innocent Afghans. Therefore, in this critical phase, we request all countries of the region and the world to grant due recognition to the struggle of the people of Afghanistan against colonialism and render all-sided moral and financial assistance with this movement because the current Jihad is, undoubtedly, a liberation struggle for all freedom-loving humanity at regional and global level.

5. The tempo of economic and industrial progress is going to shift from America and Europe to Asia in the near future. This economic impetus needs raw material. Hence, the invading America wants to bring under her belly the natural resources of Afghanistan, ostensibly, under the name of war on terrorism, thus intending to coerce regional countries to agree to the colonialist objectives and strings of America. Similarly, they want to deprive the Afghan people of access to their natural resources and compel them live in poverty and misery. Therefore, the Mujahid people of Afghanistan will never allow the invading America to plunder their natural resources and take their freedom.

6. We are ready to enter into transparent bilateral agreements with other countries on the basis of national interests and economic profitability for the extraction of the said natural resources.

7. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan is a responsible force. We assure all regional countries that we will maintain good relations with them in light of the lofty rules of ethics of Islam, following our obtaining independence. Meanwhile, we urge them not to be beguiled by America to give consent to establishment of American permanent bases in Afghanistan under the unjustified name of war on terror.

The Mujahideen of the Islamic Emirate are neither exhausted nor have become weak in their legitimate struggle.

Remarks of the Spokesman of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan Regarding the Rumors of Ceasefire in Helmand

05 January 2011 Qari Yousef Ahmadi

For the past two days, reports have been appearing in some local and international media outlets, originating from the rumors spread by the enemy that in Sarwan Kalla of Sangin district, Helmand province, local people along with the Mujahideen have reached a ceasefire with the enemy. They say, that they have agreed to avoid attacking the enemy in the area. The rumors are being disseminated by Gulab Mangal – Helmand province governor who has been nominated by the Americans—in a time that the jihad activities of the Mujahideen in Sangin district like operations of Mujahideen in other parts of the Helmand province, are in full swing and are continuing unremittingly. Then what would be the motive of the enemy behind such fatuous claims of ceasefire? In our view, the enemy is weary of the war now and facing defeat at the battle field. Therefore, they want to erect an illusive pillar to support its stance and give empty hopes of victory to soldiers who are now sagging from exhaustion and fatigues. Time and again, the enemy spread rumors about areas which are inaccessible to media. Previously, the enemy had claimed that Mujahideen had executed a ten years old boy in the same locality of the Sangin district. But subsequent investigation proved the claim to be a mere baseless allegation. The local leaders of the Islamic Emirate made investigation about this event. They did not come across any incident in Helmand or in the said area to indicate the Mujahideen or the local people have reached a deal with the enemy. Therefore, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan refutes These baseless claims of the enemy. Those media outlets which have published the report or are publishing it now, commit violation of journalistic code. The common Afghans and mainstream media outlets should take their precaution as regards the enemy's propaganda. The enemy now only relies on hypes. It resorts to disseminating some fatuous and unbelievable reports every day and week, so our astute people and the Mujahideen should not allow the enemy to succeed in these schemes.

Remarks of the Spokesman of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan about the Baseless Rumor of Illness of the Esteemed Amir-ul-Momineen

20 January 2011

Quoting the American State Department and a CIA-run private intelligence network, The Eclipse Group, an American daily, The Washington Post has published an unsubstantiated and baseless report, claiming that the esteemed Amir-ul-Momineen, Mullah Omar Mujahid had a heart attack and was treated in a hospital in Karachi. The afore-said intelligence network says, the source of its information is a physician who saw Amir-ul-momineen after the operation. But the report does not mention the name of the physician. According to the network, the physician says that he was not present in the operation theatre but heard from other physicians that Mullah Omar was suffering from cardiac complications. Some Afghan and international media outlets circulated the rumors without first verifying and substantiating it. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan categorically refutes this baseless and fatuous claim and believes that circulation of this rumor, is part and parcel of the propaganda war launched by the enemy. The esteemed Amir-ul-momineen (may Allah protect him) has never suffered from such disease, that would have required to rush him to a hospital. The enemy is circulating these rumors to cover up its own defeat at the military field and to distract the attention of the common man. It is worth mentioning that the enemy has no proof in this regard nor has any reason to prove its case. The only proof that it relies on in the report, weakens the claim in itself. The physician mentioned in the report says that he has not seen such an incident personally but has heard (the story) from other doctors. It is in itself a fabricated reason. In view of the propaganda drive by the enemy, the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan declares that this fatuous and baseless claim of the enemy will not have any negative impact on the resistance and operations of the Mujahideen against the invading forces. All the people of Afghanistan know that the enemy has launched the propaganda campaign in order to cover up its defeat. It gives circulation to baseless rumors which often end up proving a failure and fatuous. In fact these baseless rumors only add to undermining the credibility of the enemy. Apart from that, no gain the enemy will have.

INTERVIEWS

Mujahideen control 7 districts in Balkh province - and the main road to Shubarghan

9 January 2011

Balkh is amongst one of Afghanistan's 34 provinces and is considered as one of the most important provinces in the North of the country. Its capital is Mazar Sharif which is one of the country's major cities. It is approximately 12,593 square kilometers and has a population of about 650,000 or more according to a recent survey. Balkh province has been divided into 15 districts as shown below:

1. Mazar Sharif
2. Dahdady
3. Nahr-e-Shahi
4. Marmal
5. Khlam (tashqalghan)
6. Keldar
7. Shor Tipa
8. Dawlatbad
9. Balkh
10. Charbolak
11. Chamtal
12. Sholgira
13. Charkant
14. Kashinda
15. Zari*

[*Zari - new district, created from part of Kashinda District - In Figha]

Balkh is regarded as one of Afghanistan's most historical and cultural cities and moreover it was one of the strongholds of Mujahideen in the last Jihad and is also a trench of Mujahideen in the current jihad.

A brief biography of Balkh provinces Jihadi leader Mullah Abdul Karim (Nafiz) is the son of Abdul Jabbar and was born into a religiously devout family 26 years ago today in Sholgari district of Balkh province. He conducted his elementary studies in his home town and then furthered his religious studies in the different provinces of Afghanistan. He was also a friend of the Martyred Mullah Raz Muhammad Haidari the previous leader of this province and along with him has carried out Jihadic services in Balkh, Kandahar, Helmand and Zabul provinces and is presently the head Jihadi leader of Balkh province.

Alemrah Studio: Dear Nafiz Sahib, before everything else, can you shed some light on the current year Jihadic situation of Balkh province?

Mullah Abdul Karim: All praises are due to Allah and may his peace and blessings be on Muhammad (SAW) and his rightly guided companions. To answer your question, I must firstly say that Alhamdulillah, this year was the year of honor, victory and help from Allah in accordance with the name of this year's operation 'Al-Fath' as declared by the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan. We witnessed the evident manifestation of Mujahideen victories in Balkh and the rest of the Northern provinces. I would like to mention that even though we had Mujahideen groups operating in all the district's but our sphere of influence and controlled was restricted to 4 district's which were Balkh, Chabolak, Chamtal and Sholgira. During this year we extended our reach and took control of other districts like Kashinda, Nahr-e-Shahi and also Keldar and other surrounding areas. We have also had great achievements in the other districts as well. The main highway between Balkh-Shubarghan which passes through Charbolak is always bearing witness to the constant ambushes of our Mujahideen which has become a major obstacle for the enemy logistical supply rout. We were able to neutralize the enemy conspiracies by completely shutting down all the polling stations in 6 districts on Election Day. We also took out more than 15 enemy centers in which the enemy took on heavy losses from the resulting clashes. So overall the situation of Balkh province is very promising, all thanks are due to Allah. Groups of Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate have also been sent to all the district's where the enemy forces are facing a lot of difficulties.

Alemrah Studio: Is the presence of foreign troops in Balkh still limited to the center or have they spread out to the districts?

Mullah Abdul Karim: Like other northern provinces, the occupying forces based in Balkh are German, Norway, Bulgaria and other countries and are based in the provincial center, Mazar Sharif. The invading forces do go out to the surrounding districts for operations but have not built any outposts there.

Alemrah Studio: Kabul regimes Ministry of Defense as well as the governor of Balkh province in the press recently claimed that their operations in Mujahideen dominated areas have yielded great results and achievements; can you provide some information regarding this issue?

Mullah Abdul Karim: It is true that the domestic and foreign troops were recently gathered from surrounding provinces to carry out operations against Mujahideen in Balkh province because the Kabul regime's Ministry of Defense announced its intentions to carryout operation in the Northern provinces such as those being carried out in Kandahar and Helmand. Almost 5000 international and domestic troops supported by airpower entered Chamtal and Charbolak districts but faced stiff Mujahideen resistance from the very first day. Their tanks were blown apart in bombings and their foot patrols were also relentlessly ambushed. The enemy only had presence in Charbolak's Darzankar, Timorak and Khanabad areas and in Chamtal's Tarako and Hotako villages before fleeing from all the areas due to the deadly casualties and damages caused by the ferocity of Mujahideen attacks. All praises are due to Allah, Mujahideen did not have any significant losses but the enemy took on heavy losses compared to any other time and fled, disgraced and humiliated.

Alemrah Studio: How much of the region do the Mujahideen control in Balkh?

Mullah Abdul Karim: As I pointed out earlier, Mujahideen have complete control of 7 districts but not the district centers and the enemy only controls those areas which are in close proximity to Mazar Sharif however Mujahideen are active in those areas too. The enemy forces are facing a tough time as Balkh-Shubarghan main highway, the main supply rout of the enemy runs through Mujahideen controlled regions where they constantly ambush the enemy logistical convoys.

Alemrah Studio: One of the new programs of the enemy is that of creating Arbaki (militia) forces in the Northern provinces. Has this development taken place in Balkh and what has been its result?

Mullah Abdul Karim: The only district in Balkh province where an effort was made by the enemy to create militia force was Charbolak, were its Muslim population vehemently rejected this proposal with a united voice and said that they had experienced these militias before and are not ready to repeat the same mistake. With this disappointment, the enemy armed 2 previous gunmen commanders (one from Masood's and another from Dustam's party) along with some former thieves and robbers in Charbolak district where they have set up a few check posts but have so far not been able to harm any Mujahideen. This failed program has only been tried in Charbolak district which has resulted in hatred for the government by local population because of the re-armament of previous criminals who recently, as per their previous behavior stole the valuables from homes which were located near their check posts during searches.

Alemrah Studio: How much support and cooperation do the Mujahideen have from the people of Balkh province?

Mullah Abdul Karim: The Mujahid people of Balkh, just as they had previously, are standing shoulder to shoulder and are fully cooperating with the Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate. Despite the repeated efforts by the enemy to sow seeds of division and create local militias to strain the relationship between Mujahideen and local populace but due to the nation's understanding the nature and plans of the enemy through the years seem to have foiled these plans. The reason that Mujahideen are mobile and carry operations through the different districts of Balkh province is directly the result of the support of the people and we thank Allah Almighty for this situation.

Alemrah Studio: How would you describe your relationship with the other Jihad areas in the Northern provinces?

Mullah Abdul Karim: We are always in contact with our neighboring Juzjan province. Faizabad district is one of the districts in Juzjan which has a border with Balkh province and is in complete control of Mujahideen and so we lend each other a helping hand during rough times. All praises are due to Allah, Mujahideen in the Northern provinces are also in direct contact with each other like the rest of the country. Balkh, Juzjan, Faryab and Sar-e-Pul have regions which are in full Mujahideen control and they regularly carry out joint operations. There are vast regions under Mujahideen control from Balkh's Sholgari and Charbolak to Juzjan's Faizabad, Shortipa, Darzab and Faryab's Dawlatabad and Sar-e-Pul's Sayad districts are linked to each other. So due to this blessing, Mujahideen are able to coordinate and plan their operations with assurance and take advice from experiences of each other.

Alemrah Studio: The enemy is constantly making efforts and is spreading rumors that it will oust Mujahideen from Northern districts. What do you believe regarding this?

Mullah Abdul Karim: We have believed in Allah Almighty and started the Jihad here only by trusting in his power. In the beginning there were only a handful of Mujahideen carrying out guerilla style attacks in Balkh but never did we lose faith in Allah's support and we have witnessed his help arrive in the past couple of years and are witnessing it now. We still repeat ourselves; that if we stay true to our covenant with Allah (Islam and Jihad) than no power in this world can defeat us. I think that this propaganda is the enemy's last ditch effort so to raise the moral of its hired soldiers and give them false hopes. The Jihadic activities in North have reached a point where no military operation can dismantle or eliminate it. The nation has now decided to help the Mujahideen and their stance will not be changed by any military operation.

Alemrah Studio: A few days earlier the German Chancellor (Angela Merkel) visited her troops in the North and told them that they were involved in a legitimate fight and were not occupiers like Nazi Germany and added that the people wanted them here. What do have to say regarding this as an Islamic Emirate Jihadi leader of one of the Northern provinces?

Mullah Abdul Karim: I must say that these are false allegations by which the western leaders want to deceive their people. How are they not occupiers? By what treaty did they enter the North of Afghanistan? They might not call themselves occupiers but every Afghan attacks and kills them for this very reason. They are the helpers of America. Historically Germany has always had a good relationship with Afghanistan and should work hard to not lose this trust. I think Germany has made a big mistake by helping the Americas in this illegal invasion and should withdraw their troops as soon as possible or they will have to bear the brunt of our strikes.

Alemrah Studio: To end, what message do you have?

Mullah Abdul Karim: To end I want to thank the Cultural commission of Islamic Emirate who are reporting on the Jihadic activities of the Mujahideen and sending the good news of Mujahideen victories to our beloved countrymen and may Allah reward them for their sacrifices and bless their efforts. I want to thank them once again for reaching out to the Mujahideen of Balkh province and helping us to reach out the our beloved countrymen and the world.

Alemrah Studio: And thank you also.

Morchal Magazine's interview with Jihadi leader of Nimroz province

15 January 2011

Nimroz province is located in south eastern Afghanistan. Farah province located to its north, to east is Helmand, Balouchistan province of Pakistan is located to the south and to the west is Iran. Nimroz has one of the smallest populations of all the provinces which stands at around 149000 according to the latest statistics. Nimroz is mainly dry desert with an area of approximately 41,005 square kilometers. The famous Marko desert is in this province and the rivers of Helmand and Khasrod also pass through it. The provincial capital in Zaranj city and its districts are as follows:

1. Delaram
2. Chakhansur
3. Khashrod
4. Gank
5. Charbarjak

Short biography of Maulavi Abdul Rasheed:
The head Jihadi military leader of Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan in charge of Nimroz province, Maulavi Abdul Rasheed was born 40 years ago in Disho district of Helmand province into a Mujahid household. He has successfully completed his religious studies for which he had an immense love since childhood. He was appointed this important responsibility 4 years ago after the previous leader, Maulavi Mahmood was Martyred (may Allah have mercy on his soul) and is still actively carrying out his duties. The honorable Maulavi is a Balouch by ethnicity. He has also carried out his Jihadi obligations in Nimroz, Helmand, Kandahar, Kabul, Kapisa, Baghlan, Faryab and Kunduz provinces and has been wounded twice in Kapisa's Koh-e-Safa and Faryab's Khwaja Doko districts (may Allah make it a shield for him).

Q: Respected Maulavi Sahib, firstly we are honored to be sitting here with you talking about Jihadi affairs. Secondly, can you give us some information on the situation in Nimroz?

A: All praise is due to Allah and may his blessings be on the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) and what is to follow:
The Jihadi situation in Nimroz province, just like the other provinces, has seen significant progress this year; All praise is due to Allah. Nimroz provincial capital along with all 5 districts have been covered by our Mujahideen groups who have been able to take complete control of Delaram and Khashrod districts but not the district centers. From Rod southwards of Charbarjak district, which covers nearly half of the province, is also under our command. Our Mujahideen are also carrying out regular guerilla attacks in Chakhansur and Gank districts and we are hopeful to Allah Almighty that he will also grant us a complete victory there soon.

Q: Can you tell us which foreign occupying countries are based in Nimroz and in which areas?

A: All the foreign forces in Nimroz are American whose real headquarters is based in Delaram which is a huge PRT in the district center along with a small airfield. They also have an outpost in Dahmazang area. They had an outpost, which has been abandoned recently, in Khashrod's Ghor Ghor area. Similarly there is a small contingent in Zaranj city.

Q: Can you elaborate on the Jihadi situation in the province, what operations have you carried out recently?

A: This year was Alhamdulillah very successful when compared with the other years and we had a lot of success. A day hasn't passed in Delaram and Khashrod where Mujahideen haven't carried out an operation against the enemy. Mujahideen caused the enemy deadly casualties and damages by armed attacks and IED blasts in Delaram's Dahmazang, Sherkot, Durahi and all the other areas. A few days earlier, Mujahideen ambushed an enemy patrol in Dahmazang area in which 7 enemy tanks and vehicles were destroyed. Mujahideen also carried out deadly assaults on the check post scattered on the main road lying between Nimroz provincial capital and Khashrod district. We have also been successful in closing logistical routes of the enemy and in some areas have become an obstacle for them. The main road between Delaram and Khashrod has been closed for a very long time and Mujahideen also control many of the other roads. The Americans only dare to pass in huge convoys and only when accompanied by airpower.

Q: What type of operation can the Mujahideen generally carry out in the province?

A: Our Mujahideen have reached a level where they carry out offensive attacks on the enemy in big groups and are also able to put up resistance against very large enemy force. In some areas they carry out guerilla attacks in small groups in accordance with the situation there. Except a limited number of areas, we have forced the enemy on the defensive because of our sheer strength.

Q: How is the governance handled in the areas controlled by Islamic Emirate? Do you have civilian organizations active there?

A: Yes! We have been successful in handling the governance in accordance with the rules laid out by Islamic Emirate in Delaram and Khashrod district and its surrounding areas. We have a civilian Governor, district Deputy, Judge, Commission as well as heads for Education and Guidance.

Q: Are the people of Nimroz cooperating with the stooge regime or are they supporting the Mujahideen?

A: The Muslim and Mujahid people of Nimroz, as previously, are fully supporting the Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate. The people of Nimroz have embraced Mujahideen in recent years even more than before due to understanding the nature and false propaganda of democracy which the enemy spreads. The enemy is often trapped in their headquarters and when they do come out for an operation, they bomb the area and create an atmosphere of fear in hopes of achieving some progress. These types of enemy operations have caused immense damage to the lives and property of civilians in Nimroz, especially to the people of Khashrod district. So how can the people of Nimroz open up or have any faith in them? The day to day achievements of Mujahideen of Islamic Emirate is related directly to the full support we garner from the people.

Q: Dear Maulavi Sahib, to end, do you have a message to your people, Mujahideen or Muslims in general, in which we can help deliver?

A: Thank you brother. I would like to tell ordinary people that the situation in our country has reached a very sensitive point and all signs are indicating that the invaders have failed and are going to flee with the help of Allah Almighty. We are going to be facing another hurdle just like how we have been in bringing a pure Islamic government. So we must unify ourselves and be very vigilant to not get deceived by the cunning plans of the enemy by which, may Allah forbid, our sacrifices become fruitless like those of the previous Jihad. I have the same request and hope from our Mujahideen to deliver on the promise to our nation of a free, independent and an Islamic State and not let the dreams and aspirations of our Martyrs, Orphans and Widows go to waste. They should do their utmost not to harm our people who are true Mumineen (Believers) and have sacrificed a lot in the way of Allah for an Islamic State. No effort should be spared in keeping them happy.

Interview with the Commander incharge of eastern Afghanistan, the respected Mawlawee Abdul Kabir

21 January 2011

Alemarah: Recently Karzai's Kabul regime has announced 'Great Peace Shura' (council) consisting of 69 members, which includes some familiar faces of leaders of some earlier movements, and also earlier members of Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan. What is your view about the significance of this particular council, efficacy of its members and its key role towards achieving peace?

In the presence of foreign troops 'the dialogue for peace' is baseless and nothing more than propaganda.

Maulawe Abdul Kabir: Dialogue and congregation is an accepted Afghan culture, and is a base for sorting internal problems and differences. Whereas this particular 'shura' has no such credibility, because it is one sided and is intended to serve personal profits and benefits. To a far extent, its members are in favor of American occupation, although they consider themselves 'Jihadi leaders' which they were at the times of Jihad against the Russians but as a result of their support for American occupation, they have no such status in the sight of Afghan nation. Similarly, those members who are representing the Islamic Emirate and are considered to have participated in the 'peace shura' can never represent Islamic Emirate, because they themselves are under American surveillance and custody.

Alemarah: Seeing that you negate every peace process and press more on military solution, don't you think that to some extent this might indicate your political weakness?

Maulawe Abdul Kabir:: As far as Afghanistan's current circumstances are concerned peace process will only be possible if it results in the guaranteed expulsion of occupation forces and paves the way for the establishment of Islamic State. Any such process seems to be unachievable in the presence of occupation forces.

Alemarah: During the governance of Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan there was undoubtedly relentless fighting in north of Kabul and in many other northern provinces, which resulted in killing, imprisonment, and suffering of thousands. Therefore there is an atmosphere of mistrust between you and the north and the hostility which arose as a result of relentless fighting has not been eliminated yet. So in order to solve these problems and maintain an atmosphere of confidence, have you taken or are planning to take any steps?

Maulawe Abdul Kabir: It's very apparent that the Islamic Emirate has not fought or disputed over tribe, language or zone. During the Islamic Emirate's previous rule, ethnic groups from all over the country including the North were members and part of the Islamic Emirate. Even now, from north to south and every other province of Afghanistan has 'Jihadi Arrangements' and 'problem resolving body' in which they all participate. As far as the differences with the North are concerned, we must make it clear that Islamic Emirate has never fought northern general public, nor has any antagonism on basis of zone or language. However we have fought those who were creating obstacles for our 'virtuous objectives' which were to achieve peace throughout the country and establish an Islamic State. These obstacles were also created in the south and likewise we fought them and had similar policy towards them. Islamic Emirate does not differentiate between ethnic groups, and expects from country's all ethnic groups including 'the great North' to intensify the fighting against the invading forces, and to disclose the enemy's known and secret plans.

Alemarah: Amir-ul-Mu'mineen, Mullah Muhammad Omar Mujahid, in his interesting Eid-ul-fitr message had pointed towards country's state-building program and its important features, one of which was employment of qualified personnel and another was activation of 'shura' type system. So could you please explain the criteria for requirements and qualifications of Islamic Emirate personnel? Will it be limited to religious students and knowledge only or will it include modern day knowledge and qualifications?

Maulawe Abdul Kabir: Islamic Emirate has never overlooked qualified populace but it was only some higher posts which were occupied by scholars and students of knowledge (i.e. Taliban), the rest of our employees were qualified people and with the help of Allah if Islamic Emirate comes to power again, we will pay even more attention towards employing qualified personnel according to our law. Coming to the last part of your question, no our criteria is not limited to religious knowledge only, but we prefer qualification and taqwa (God fearing) and whoever possess these qualities is our ideal choice.

Alemarah: In Afghanistan, whoever comes to power, in order to stay potent they must pursue a policy which results in good and harmless relations with neighboring countries, and the neighbor must not have concerns about them. Accordingly, what will be the plan and practice of Islamic Emirate, and how can you assure your neighbors that Islamic Emirate will not take any action against them and will follow a policy of mutual respect?

Maulaw Abdul Kabir: As Muslims we know very well the rights of neighbors according to Islam. We have always strived to maintain good relations with our neighbors, and no one can prove that we created problems or difficulties for our neighbors when we were in authority. Even though we have very critical circumstances in front of us right now, none of our neighbors including Iran and Pakistan can argue that we have interfered in any way in their country's internal affairs. Furthermore respected Commander of the Believers, Mullah Muhammad Omar, has from time to time made this matter clear in his messages, and that is our official policy.

Alemarah: We occasionally hear reports that Taliban leaders are engaged in talks with the Americans or the Kabul regime, in such and such country was held the first meeting, another meeting was held in such and such country and so on. Furthermore, the media points out specific names that so and so among Taliban leaders is inclined to peace talks, even though you have rejected these contacts and reports up to this moment. Can you discuss who might be trying to issue such reports and what might be their prime objective behind it?

Maulaw Abdul Kabir: There is no doubt that the Americans have been defeated militarily and their combatants have failed in this regard. Now America and her allies are trying to have at least some political gains. Hence they try hard to expand and boast about this show, they also try to provide with some fabricated proofs and mention names of Taliban leaders that they are in contact with and they are inclined to peace talks. Whereas all this is nothing but propaganda of occupation forces who try to create an atmosphere of mistrust between ordinary Afghans and Mujahideen. You can see that the enemy of Islam, in spite of enormous propaganda, cannot provide any evidence of peace talks with the authorities of Islamic Emirate. This is a proof in itself that neither there has been any peace talk nor has any authority of Islamic Emirate shown any inclination towards it

Asharq Al-Awsat Interview with Taliban Spokesman Mullah Qari Yousef Ahmadi

01 September 2010

[Asharq Al-Awsat] How true are the reports that elements from the Taliban stoned to death a man and a woman in northern Afghanistan and that the movement also passed a sentence against a young 23-year-old Afghan woman and a married 45-year-old Afghan to be stoned to death in the Kunduz Province?

[Ahmadi] Yes, a married woman from the Turkoman tribe in Imam Sahib District ran away with a married man from the Pashtun tribe. This almost led to a domestic conflict between the two tribes. However, the elders of the two tribes submitted a complaint to the Taliban officials in the district who took over the investigation and followed up on the issue alongside prominent figures and religious scholars from the district. The pair were captured by the prominent figures and confessed their sin in front of a Shariaa committee. The religious scholars issued a sentence to stone them and the Taliban court supported the same sentence. The sentence to stone the pair to death was carried out in the Malaqli District marketplace and a large number of inhabitants of the district participated in the act.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] What is your opinion on Aisha, the Afghan girl whose face was mutilated and whose picture appeared on the cover of publications around the world?

[Ahmadi] These are examples of the psychological war that the US occupation is waging against the successful resistance movement that the Islamic Emirate is leading. It is a war that started when the Taliban movement came to power in 1996 and when the United States lost hope in transforming it into a subservient movement ruling by other than God's laws and promoting their schemes in Afghanistan and the region. Whenever the military actions of the United States and its allies fail they intensify the psychological war that relies on rumors in order to pit the various sects of the people against one another. The creation of lies is part of this policy, and so are the claims that the Taliban are committing acts with which they are not connected at all, such as the incident of "Aisha the Afghan" about which you are inquiring. Aisha admitted that it was her husband and his brother that disfigured her nose. We pointed out the ambiguities of the incident and of what happened to her in a detailed special statement. We said that it is a family affair and the Emirate has nothing to do with it. We condemned it in a statement and said that the culprit deserves a harsh sentence for his odious act. The incitement of the world press against us is not something new. It has been going on before the aggression on us and the occupation of our homeland. In fact, it paved the way for that aggression. The majority of the western media outlets have been constantly attacking us by propagating lies against us in order to cover up for the crimes that their armies are committing on our land and against our people.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] Commentators in the west say that you are a state from the 15th century or from the Medieval Ages, what are thoughts on that?

[Ahmadi] By saying so they want to malign Islam itself. They describe Islam and its rules in a way to repel people against it and to keep them away from Islam as they claim that its laws are primitive and backward and clash against their civilization and what they claim to be human rights. The majority of the Muslims have discovered these allegations. We governed Afghanistan before the Karzai government. The Americans and their ilk admit that security prevailed then. No one was tortured by dogs; there were no secret prisons and no night raids of the homes of the innocent. They were not shelled or burned with phosphorous bombs. I do not know what the US government calls such criminal deeds in the 21st century. Our people insist on applying the laws of Islam in governance and in all aspects of life. We will not be deterred by the poisons vented by the lying media outlets that are financed by the Jews and the colonialist enemies of Islam.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] How do feel about the United Nations report that says the Taliban movement is to blame for three quarters of the civilian deaths in Afghanistan since the beginning of the year?

[Ahmadi] We are amazed that the United Nations is turning itself into a tool and lackey of US interests. Can this organization be recognized indeed as an international organization after all this bias in favor of the American side? This organization is daring to lie and propagate such unimaginable propaganda. Last month, the US forces killed more than 100 civilians and admitted killing these civilians. In its report, however, the United Nations is holding the emirate to blame for killing civilians. All the nations of the world know that the United States is forcing our people to submit not to the throwing of roses from airplanes but to the dropping of bombs that are internationally banned. Their attacks on our people using all means have become notorious starting with savage dogs to the most lethal and fatal weapons. Since their aggression to this date, wedding celebrations have been a constant target for their planes. They justify their crimes by claiming that their aircraft came under hostile fire or that they were aimed at a Taliban position. If they are unable to lie, they claim that the bombing resulted from inaccurate intelligence. They have rarely volunteered a few dollars to silence the families of the victims. But the United Nations closes its eyes to such painful incidents. Our people that are experiencing such incidents daily insist on expelling the occupation and punishing it for its crimes. We see how men and youths of all ages are flocking to join the ranks of the mujahidin and to offer them all forms of support. Such lies have a counter result to what the enemy wishes. Our people are very mature and have experience with the plays used by occupiers. They know how to uncover lies and deceit and respond to them with the appropriate jihadist ways.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] Why are Afghan women worried about reports on reconciliation with the Taliban or their return to power? In other words, do negotiations with the Taliban threaten the rights of Afghan women? And what will you do with the thousands of schools for girls that the Karzai government has built?

[Ahmadi] This too is part of the psychological warfare propagated by the occupation and its media outlets. How do they know what the women in Afghanistan think? When did they ask them about their opinion? The immediate reason why the Taliban movement was started in 1994 was the insecurity on the roads of Afghanistan, particularly the incidents of abductions and assaults to which many women were subjected at the hands of armed men on the roads. This was in collaboration with the leaders of the Kabul mujahidin and the heads of parties that took over the civil wars among the mujahidin and the gangs that destabilized the country. The residents of Kabul still remember how schoolgirls were abducted and held by the commanders of the armed groups and how they were assaulted without daring to inquire about their whereabouts. And now, what are the occupiers doing to preserve the rights and honor of women? They are like the media. Instead of repeating rumors circulated by the occupation they should go to the capital and investigate the living conditions of the women there as well as in the rest of Afghanistan. The occupiers are working hard to spread prostitution in the land and to promote it and facilitate it using all means. Moreover, the poverty that the occupiers and the corrupt regime loyal to them have spread has made women the primary victim in society after losing her bread earner and her shelter and exposed to diverse pressures and seductions. It has reached a point where even an honest woman has no solution except to sell her children to international companies and gangs that abound in Kabul. The western occupiers have been inventive in initiating paid pregnancies to exploit poor women. What decency or honor have women left under the occupation? Such wicked statements against Islamic Shariaa that lament women's rights and claim that women are worried about the return of the rule of Shariaa in the Islamic Emirate most probably originated with some Afghan women that have been living in the West for many years or that were born there. These have become westerners with Afghan names and are currently participating with the foreigners in occupying Afghanistan. They do not at all represent the honest struggling Afghan woman that stands fast in defense of her husband and children in the fields of jihad in defense of religion and the Afghan honor. The freedom and dignity of women cannot be preserved outside Islamic Shariaa. As for what we will do with the tens of thousands of schools for girls, we will more thousands of such schools for girls and boys. All aspects of education will be based on the teachings of Islam in addition to modern sciences that enable our people to build their country without needing foreign expertise.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] How do you think the problem of cultivating drugs can be solved? Are you profiting from it in taxes and duties as the western media outlets are saying?

[Ahmadi] Everyone knows that in 2000, the Emirates issued a decision stopping the cultivation of opium. This was the biggest reason that hastened the invasion of our country because the United States is the foremost beneficiary from the cultivation of opium in Afghanistan and coca in Colombia and other South American countries. A United Nations report testified that Afghanistan's cultivation of opium in 2001 dropped from about 3600 tons in the past to only 185 tons that were mostly cultivated by the Afghan Northern Alliance that was allied with the United States. However, at present - with the country under occupation and with more than 150,000 US and allied armed soldiers, more than 200,000 mercenaries working for US security firms, and scores of thousands of the local agent army and local militias and mercenaries - we find the cultivation of opium has reached unprecedented levels. According to some estimates, it has exceeded 9,000 tons. The majority of the US forces are used to protect the opium crop in Helmand that they have turned into the biggest opium farm in the world. They also process heroin in their air bases and US planes transport it to many parts of the world. As they seek Karzai's help in collecting the opium from the farmers, at the same time they use the local armed forces, the police, and other security organs to fight the cultivation and smuggling operations carried out by the local gangs without the official approval of the occupation. We demand an international inquiry to investigate the veracity of this information. Such a committee should be granted the authority to enter and inspect the military bases to seize the heroin factories in order to end the dangers of opium of opium that has become a pestilence afflicting the whole world thanks to the United States that is the biggest stronghold of the international drug mafias whose influence reach to senior US officials and establishments, especially in the army and the intelligence service.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] What do you think of the Taliban leadership's call for an inquiry - in cooperation with the United Nations - into the issue of civilian deaths days after the United Nations has accused the movement of being responsible for the large part of human losses?

[Ahmadi] We are confident that the US occupation will not permit any independent agency or commission in Afghanistan to investigate any crime it commits regardless of whether these crimes are related to the cultivation and smuggling of heroin or the annihilation of civilians in air strikes or the violation of the human rights of prisoners or raids and attacks on civilian homes or the imprisonment of civilians in their own homes or killing them in front of their families and letting trained dogs gnaw at their bodies or any similar crime perpetrated by the barbaric occupation of the US forces in Afghanistan. On our part, we have expressed our readiness to disclose any information we have on such issues and to cooperate with any international inquiry on condition that the occupation does the same in order to reveal all the facts. However, the occupation will not do so because it is worried about an international scandal that will expose its barbaric aggression on our people.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] If you return to power, do you have economic, social, and development plans to raise the standard of living of the Afghan people? How will you co-exist with the outside world?

[Ahmadi] Anyone examining the official statements released by the emirate and the remarks of its officials can see that we have four goals that we seek to accomplish after expelling the occupation: First, we want to establish an independent Shariaa-based government that can run the country and representing all the components of the Muslim Afghan people. Second, we want to achieve national unity and civic peace among all the components of the people. Third, we want to rebuild a strong and prosperous Afghanistan. Fourth, we want to establish a system of relations based on justice, equality, and parity with all the neighboring countries as well as in the region and the rest of the world, primarily, of course, with the Muslim world based on the rules of Shariaa. The people of Afghanistan are active, innovative, and capable of reconstructing their country. Moreover, our natural resources are sufficient to turn our people into one of the richest nations on earth if the United States and others would stop interfering in our internal affairs.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] What is your opinion on the statement made by General Petraeus, the commander of the US forces in Afghanistan, that they are prepared to negotiate and that there is a strategy for reconciliation?

[Ahmadi] This is another US trick to change the character of the struggle between us. Our first and last demand is the expulsion of the occupation before discussing any other topic. Our goal is not negotiations; our goal is to expel the occupiers. Moreover, there is no reconciliation with the occupiers; there is armed struggle and relentless resistance until the occupiers withdraw their forces from our country. Negotiations under the shadow of occupation lead to continued occupation. When the Americans invaded our country they did not negotiate with anyone; therefore, they should not negotiate with us when they withdraw from Afghanistan. They want our surrender under the guise of negotiations; this is impossible to happen. Also, if they mean reconciliation between the Islamic Emirate and the ruling regime in Kabul, this is impossible as well because we are not fighting the occupation in order to reconcile with its lackeys. Either these lackeys surrender to the emirate and thus win the general amnesty proposed to those that collaborated with the occupiers or they withdraw with their masters on top of the same tanks that brought them. The fate of communist president Najibullah [he was hanged from a street lamppost in Kabul in 1996] still revives the memory from atop the lampposts in Kabul.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] What is your opinion on the rampant corruption that is gnawing the bones of the country and of those corrupt Afghan businessmen and men of influence that we see in Dubai and London?

[Ahmadi] The occupation cannot continue except in a climate of corruption. It is the main source of corruption and of political and social deviation. We note that any occupation uses only the corrupt locals of the occupied country. The more corrupt they are the more they are rewarded. This happened in the donors' conference recently held in Kabul when the rate of commission of the corrupt government was raised from 20 percent to 40 percent of the total of international aid. It is ironic that the conferees approved rewarding the corrupt of the Kabul government as if this has become a recognized international law. It is odd that the donors agreed to squander the funds of their peoples in such a shameless fashion to their sovereignty and dignity. This is not strange behavior by the US Administration that rewarded senior banking officials that caused the biggest financial crisis in the United States and the world. The $700 million came from the American people that are suffering from unemployment, dropping standards of living, and bankruptcy of medium and small banks and businesses. Corruption is a phenomenon that is inseparable from occupation.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] If you return to power, will you welcome Al-Qaeda and Bin Laden or will you expel them after learning the lesson that cost you power?

[Ahmadi] I believe that this question is premature. I outlined to you the four principles that I mentioned earlier. These are: A. We want to establish an independent Shariaa-based government that can run the country and representing all the components of the Muslim Afghan people. B. We want to achieve national unity and civic peace among all the components of the people. C. We want to rebuild a strong and prosperous Afghanistan and [D] a system of relations based on justice, equality, and parity with all the neighboring countries as well as in the region and the rest of the world based on the rules of Shariaa. These principles are the future priorities of our government. The Islamic Emirate will not deviate from these principles and we will not allow any individual or side to undermine them. As for the reason for the US war on us, it is nothing but our insistence to apply the Shariaa of Islam and to follow an independent policy that does not take its orders from Washington or any of its agents in the region. Everything else is just an excuse that enables the enemy to find scores of other excuses when it insists on committing criminal aggression on us or on others.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] What is new on the ground regarding America's war in Kandahar, the stronghold of the Taliban in southern Afghanistan?

[Ahmadi] The United States has not made any military advances on the ground in Afghanistan even on the level of a small village like Marjah - where they turned the world upside down at the beginning of the year in an attempt to falsely claim some progress - let alone Kandahar, a model of heroism that broke the Soviets who did not enjoy an hour of security or comfort for a decade. The mujahidin wrested Kandahar from the hands of the Soviets several times and did not abandon it for a moment. At present, the mujahidin in Kandahar are more powerful. They are more organized and skilled by far. Their combat tactics do not permit the enemy to harm them or to score any victory on the ground. The enemy suffers serious losses in lives and materiel with every step it takes in Kandahar. They launched their operations from Kandahar several times and faced fierce resistance by the mujahidin. After they realized the failure of their offensive, they announced that they were postponing it to another time. However, God willing they will not score victory at any time. By the way, Kandahar is not the only Taliban stronghold. All of Afghanistan is their stronghold and all the people are members of the Taliban movement. We are not the only ones that say this; the enemy says the same thing. Whenever it launches a military offensive on any site in the country it calls it "the fortress of the Taliban movement". This shows the degree of the movement's success and the solidity of the Emirate regime that is leading the armed jihad and the people's resistance in our steadfast Muslim country.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] In light of the rising cost of the bill of blood and destruction, is it time to make peace and restore stability?

[Ahmadi] Loss of lives and property is cheap for the sake of Islam; sacrifice is cheap for the sake of the homeland and its freedom and the dignity of the Afghans. Freedom cannot be achieved without a high price and cost. Humiliation, disgrace, and surrender may seem an easier solution for some in the short run; however, it is costlier on the long run even if it is marketed under the deceitful misnomer of peace. There can be no stability with occupation but veritable death and manifest loss in this world and the next world. Our values are based on Islam; they are not based on false principles marketed by the occupiers in order to push us to surrender in return for cheap bribes that are accepted only by the decadent and those that have abandoned religion and their manhood. Over the ages, the Afghans have been well known for their passion for glory and freedom. Their country has been called the graveyard of invaders. We are determined to continue our jihad for the sake of God Almighty until God grants us victory or martyrdom. God willing, we are the winners in either case.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] Are there Taliban judges in the regions that you control that administer "hudud" [punishments in Islam]?

[Ahmadi] Yes, because the administration of hudud is a method to establish security and reform society from sinful corruption. In most of the liberated areas, there are judges from the Emirate that judge on disputes among the people. The details of administering hudud are known to the Shariaa judges and are set by the Emirate in statutes that it publishes every now and then in order to organize administration, the judiciary, and combat in accordance with the development of the situation in every region separately.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] Why do some Afghans resort to the Taliban courts to settle their internal disputes?

[Ahmadi] They do so because the Emirate judges seek to solve problems between Afghans without taking bribes. In areas administered by the government, the people prefer to go to wherever the emirate has courts because these courts give them just sentences distant from the corruption of the government's judges and the police. The aim of establishing Shariaa courts is to treat the people with justice and to solve their disputes in accordance with Shariaa.

[Asharq Al-Awsat] Are you satisfied with the call of 350 Afghan religious scholars to apply Islamic Shariaa? Do you consider this a step for reconciliation in the Afghan society?

[Ahmadi] The application of Shariaa cannot take place under the forces of the occupation. The basic aim of Shariaa is to secure the safety of a Muslim society in a Muslim state. If the ruling regime is un-Islamic, talking about the application of the rules of Shariaa becomes deception. Since the occupying armies control the country, talking about the application of Shariaa becomes ridicule of Shariaa and religion. The beleaguered occupiers will welcome such a call that is tantamount to entrenching their presence by fooling the people, dividing the ranks of the mujahidin, and polishing the rule of the agents that the occupation brought and consolidated their rule with the help of tens of thousands of soldiers. We doubt that such a call was made by respectable scholars; they are individuals that assume the title of ulema, just like the individuals that they cornered in the jerga [council of elders] of peace that was held in Kabul this summer. They were mere government officials; they did not represent the tribes. This call is part of the psychological war that includes the propagation of rumors. His rumor abuses Shariaa and abuses religion. It is unacceptable to the people. This will drive us to more resistance until the occupiers, who are the source of the calamity, are finally expelled.

Translation of Asharq Al-Awsat

The Islamic Emirate Of Afghanistan And Its Successful Administrative Policy

27 January 2011 Ikram Maiwandi

It is patently clear from the experiences of those who preceded us and firmly established from our own observations that the success of Islamic governments, as well as democratic and despotic governments, and the prosperity of religious; educational; governmental and other establishments lies in the superiority of its administrative regime in heeding its important elements (lofty aims, the abilities of its leader, having a righteous entourage around him, etc.). Complete victory in this field requires diligent efforts from those heading it to implement decisions issued; established regulations and fixed principles. Attention must also be paid to the impartiality of the administration through the good selection of personnel who are recruited to work there.

I do not intend to list the components of successful administration or to declare the characteristics of an Islamic Administration. What concerns me here is to shed light on the Islamic Emirate's policy in the realm of administration and coordination despite the difficult circumstances surrounding it connected to its heavy involvement in the Holy Jihad and the bitter war against the Americans and their partners in their repulsive crimes. I also strive to place before you, as Allah enables me, simple information regarding the order of the Islamic Emirate – or the Taliban regime, as they say, so that perhaps it will benefit the readers of our heroic magazine "al-Somood" to "heal the breasts of the Believers" and "Nor is that for Allah any great matter".

The loftiness of the desired objective and the sanctity of the anticipated goal - combined with the firm anchoring of this sanctity within those who belong to this administration after they are made fully aware of it - are together a strong factor in successfully achieving the declared and sought-after goal. It is also the secret behind reviving the spirit of altruism, dedication and sacrifice in the spirit of the staff (members). When they are convinced of the importance of their jobs they will compete in rushing to complete their assigned tasks and exert the utmost of their efforts for the sake of achieving the highest objective and sacred goal, because they will see the laudable results and great benefits behind their activities and above the ceiling of their own invaluable works. As Allah Almighty says in this regard: "They are those who, if We establish them in this land, establish regular prayer and give regular charity, enjoin the right and forbid wrong: with Allah rests the end (and decision) of all affairs." (al-Hajj: 41).

Moreover, concern must be paid to attracting trustworthy and competent persons, and choosing specialized cadre; contingent upon piety and impartiality. Specialization without piety corrupts an administration and piety without competence weakens it. In the event of a contradiction, the pious one is given preference, because he is like the shepherd whose legs are tied and is unable to benefit the flock or serve the people. But the corrupt one is a ravenous wolf spoiling the earth and harming others. Preventing damage takes priority among wise men and in any event the selection of righteous people is a strong element of successful administration. This is in accordance with the words of the Almighty: "Allah doth command you to render back your Trusts to those to whom they are due" (al-Nisa: 58) and "Verily the most honored of you in the sight of Allah is (he who is) the most righteous of you." (al-Hujurat: 13).

The capacity of the personality of the leader who directs the people religiously, politically and ideologically is no less important than any of the above. Indeed, it is considered one of the most important elements of successful administration. The leader is the axis around which matters pivot. He employs the community to achieve his goals and directs people to goodness and happiness. He warns them against evil and danger according to his lights. Among the duties of the leader – after trust in and reliance upon his Lord and Creator – is to make a diligent effort in directing the activities of all the employees and volunteers who assist him – in an atmosphere of cooperation – towards the fixed goal. He is also responsible for creating strong feelings among the people to move quiet hearts and slumbering eyes, and energize the human power for self-sacrifice for the sake of achieving high and lofty goals. It is notable that among the qualities of the successful leader are that he is free; male; of sound mind and emotion; with knowledge; vision; strength; courage; wisdom; organizational skills and other qualities mentioned in the books of fiqh and 'aqidah. So seek it where you would expect to find it.

1. After this pleasant introduction, I take you to the subject of this study by saying: In its entire organization, the Islamic Emirate relies on the Book of Allah Almighty and upon the Sunnah of his Messenger (SAW), the Sunnah of the rightly guided Caliphs and the sayings of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them all. It utilizes the fatwas of the followers and the opinions of mujtahid scholars, may Allah Almighty have mercy on them. The Emirate borrows from the history of bygone nations and its system consists of the components of a successful administration balanced with the sanctity of its goals, the vision of its leader, and the strength of its faith and the qualifications of its workers with regards to piety; devotion; trust; competence, etc.

2. Based on this, the Administrative System of the Islamic Emirate is based upon the principles of the Islamic Caliphate from the era of the rightly guided Caliphs, may Allah be pleased with them, in dividing the country into provinces, appointing pious and righteous governors, guiding workers to piety and justice, encouraging the establishment of a religious and worldly policy, tending to the needs of the people, instructing them in matters of religion and encouraging them to make the utmost effort in promoting virtue and preventing vice. Regulations have been drawn up for the guidance of the Mujahideen fi sabeel Allah. Messages are constantly sent for this purpose to guide them; direct their deeds; illuminate their thoughts and have them follow in the footsteps of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them. Umar ibn al-Khattab, may Allah be pleased with him, spoke to the people thus, saying "O people, by Allah I do not send you governors to flag you or take your wealth but I send them to teach you your Religion and the way you should follow (sunnah). If anything other than this is done to anyone, he should refer the matter to me. By Him in whose hand is Umar's soul, I will provide justice for him." (History of Islam/Dr. Hasan Ibrahim/part 1, page 455). Uthman ibn Affan, may Allah be pleased with him, wrote to his governors in the provinces, saying: "Allah has decreed the imams to be shepherds, he did not ask them to be tax collectors. When this Ummah emerged, they were created as shepherds; they were not created as tax collectors. Your imams are on the verge of becoming tax collectors and not shepherds. If that happens, diffidence, fidelity and loyalty will be torn apart. The best course is to look to the affairs of Muslims and what is requested of them. Give to them what is their due and take from them what you ought" (Previous reference/part 1/page 455).

3. The area of our Muslim country of Afghanistan is approximately 650,000 square kilometers with an estimated population of at least 33 million people. The country is divided into 34 administrative units, each named a province such as Qandahar, Helmand, Herat and Balkh province. Moreover, each province is divided into multiple directorates, big and small such as Marjah in Helmand province, Arghandab in Qandahar province, etc. Each directorate contains beautiful areas and numerous villages. There are a total of 400 provinces, while there are tens of thousands of villages.

4. In each village, there is a faithful leader (appointed) by the Emirate and who is responsible for civilian and military affairs. He has around him from 10 to 50 Mujahideen depending on the prevailing circumstances. A new leader is selected from among them if the previous leader is martyred or is unable to continue to lead for any reason. In case of a disagreement, the matter is elevated to the amirs above them. This battalion – called a front – is ready for combat and to fight against the enemy night and day. They are also recourse to which people raise their complaints, whether among themselves or between them and other villages. If the problems are small, they are referred to notables of the tribe for resolution. If the problems are big, then they are elevated to the senior officials in the directorate for a decision to be made in accordance with pure Shari'ah law.

5. Each directorate has a Governor of known piety among the people. He has a deputy with experience in affairs of the region. Under their command work different committees such as: Committee for Arbitration and Settling Disputes; Committee for Education and Development; a Military Commission to manage war issues, etc. The Governor is the commander of the whole village and area leaders in that directorate, and he is responsible for the application of Allah's Shari'ah there. The appointment and dismissal of the Governor is in the hands of the Supreme Command after consultation with the provincial Governor and the province-level Military Committee. He works under the command of the provincial Governor and is directly responsible for the directorate.

6. Each province of the country is an independent unit with a commander called the Governor. He has a deputy to assist him. The Governor is directly responsible for the Supreme Command of that province and directs its military, civilian, financial and legal affairs. Usually this important post is entrusted to an experienced and capable man; a man of Religion and morality who fears no one in Allah. He is a true and trustworthy, and capable of directing matters. Among his duties is application of Shari'ah laws and statutes; supervision of directorate governors; execution of the war plan; supervision of financial resources and expenditures. Committees with appropriate authorities work with him on the province level, including legal, military and financial committees; an education committee, etc. The appointment and dismissal of the Governor is the responsibility of the Supreme Commander after consultation with the High Shura Council.

7. Above that is the role of the Main Committees with authority at the level of the Islamic Emirate. Each Committee is composed of a number of trustworthy and loyal persons with experience in their assigned occupation. In the current structure of the Emirate, these replace – as circumstances dictate – the old Ministries. They are as follows:

A. The Military Committee: This is equivalent of the Ministry of Defense and coordinates military affairs, including preparing young men for sacred Jihad; arming the Mujahideen with weapons, ammunition and equipment; preparing war plans; issuing orders for battles and attacks on enemy bases, dens of lackeys, etc.

B. Preaching and Guidance Committee: This is composed of the senior scholars and issues fatwas on important matters of fiqh. It also appoints and employs scholars and preachers and provides guidance to the Mujahideen and citizens and gives advice to the commanders and officials.

C. Ministry of Culture and Information: It broadcasts statements of the Amir-ul-Momineen, may Allah Almighty protect him, as well as the decisions of the Supreme Command, the judgments, statements and decisions of the High Shura Council, and publishes magazines and newspapers in different languages. The Last Word

The strong faith of the Leader of the Islamic Emirate in Allah the All-Wise and All-Powerful; in the sanctity of his goal; and its deep roots in the hearts of his workers; and the impartiality of the administration in selecting righteous men is a symbol of heroism; and the secret of the success of the Holy Jihad in the country. This is especially represented in the faith of the heroic leader Mullah Mohammad Omar (Mujahid), may Allah give him victory over his enemies, when he said "No, No" to occupation, relying instead upon Allah Almighty and Omnipotent, despite of the greed of the infidels and their attacks upon the defenseless people. Rather he ordered Jihad against them to defend the Religion and honor, uttering the words of his predecessors: Allah is sufficient for us; He is the best disposer of affairs.

There is no doubt that the Mujahideen are the helpers of Allah. If a Mujahid is not a supporter of Allah, then who is? This is especially true in our modern age when they are led by noble scholars and seekers of Shari'ah knowledge and the righteous from among Allah's servants. As for the desired goal and objective of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan it is to elevate the word of Allah Almighty and establish an Islamic government by every meaning of the word, and to expel the enemies of Allah; the Americans, from the country. It is for Allah to humble to the depths the word of those who are infidels, to justify the truth and prove falsehood false. It is for Allah to give honor to the holy Jihad, Islam and the Muslims and to humiliate idolatry and the idolaters. And for this, let those aspire who have aspirations.

The Negotiation Ploy Boomerangs on the Enemy

4 December 2010

The esteemed Amir-ul-Mumineen, Mullah Muhammad Omar Mujahid, in his Eid ul Adha message, re-affirmed the stance of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan regarding talks with the puppet Kabul regime and the American invaders. He made it clear that the solution of the Afghan issues lies only in full withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan. The recent developments as regards our country show the far-sightedness of the Amir-ul-momineen, by not responding to the war stratagem being launched by the enemy time and again under the name of peace talks overtures. With the passage of time, it becomes more and more exposed that the enemy is only trying to create rifts among the ranks of Mujahideen through their publishing false reports of peace talks with the senior officials of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.

On 22nd Nov. 2010, the New York Times wrote: "the so called "high -ranking member of Taliban" was actually a lowly shop keeper from Quetta. He had introduced himself as Mullah Akhtar Muhammad Mansour to the British Intelligence MIG; His credentials had been confirmed by US intelligence agencies. Then, he was flown by NATO to Kabul to meet with Hamid Karzai who gave him large amount of money. The man apparently had long talks with the MIG for several days before he was whisked away to Kabul. In fact, the enemy has no clear strategy for diplomatic solutions of the issue. Instead, they resort to some hypocritical tactics aimed at weakening the Mujahideen. A western writer writes: "But wait. If we did want to weaken Taliban resolve—and surely we do—and if individual Taliban leaders aren't really sure what the others are doing, then even a fake Taliban talker might do the trick. Isn't it possible the false Mansour served our interests--by putting the real Taliban leaders "on edge," worried that some of their colleagues might be cracking? If the fake Mansour didn't exist, it might be worth paying someone take the role, no?"

After flaunting its military surge and much publicized operations in Helmand and Kandahar, the enemy has realized that their increased military presence has actually backfired by inciting resistance to their presence even in areas that were relatively peaceful in the past. By their own admission, attacks on the foreign forces from April to October 2010 have increased by 300% compared to the same period in 2009. By the Grace of Allah, the Operation Al Fath (Operation Victory) has successfully been forging ahead. Next phase of the Mujahideen operations, as pointed out by the Commander of the Faithful, will deal dashing blows at the enemy, Inshallah.

In the recent Nato summit in Lisbon, the occupying Nato forces confirmed the end of 2014 as their final withdrawal date from Afghanistan. Since the invaders has proved unable to defeat the Mujahideen militarily (as they themselves admit), they are trying fatuously to create dissension and distrust among the ranks of Mujahideen by spreading the rumor of talks. After the 9/11 attacks on America, the United States did not bother to open a comprehensive and neutral investigation of the 9/11 event to find the real culprits but instead of presenting concrete evidence, the Americans simply said that the Afghans should give in to their demands or they will invade our country. Soon, they started a barbaric aerial bombardment of Afghanistan, without regard to any principle of International law. The Nato allies, repeating mistakes of past empires, considered Afghanistan as a weak nation that they could invade and utilize for their designs in the region. After the fall of Kabul, the Amir ul Mumineen, Mullah Muhammad Mujahid, in an interview with BBC Radio had predicted that Afghanistan would prove as a graveyard of the American Empire. Today, the Americans have been in Afghanistan for more than nine years, the same length of time that the Soviets had been in Afghanistan, and they are in no better condition than the Soviets. Their puppet regime is weak and corrupt and holds no sway beyond Kabul. They have displaced hundreds of thousands of innocent Afghan civilians; tens of thousands of Afghans have fallen prey to the enemy's indiscriminate bombing, and an even higher number have been wounded by them. Their brazen lies about the ground realities have spiraled to such an extent that even their puppet President does not believe in them anymore. But most important of all, the myth of American supremacy has been shattered. America has been demoted from a supposedly "hyper-power" or "super-power" to just another regional power, unable to impose its will on other nations without the backing of other regional powers. The irony is that America was instigated into attacking Afghanistan by other regional powers, and Americas presence in the country served their interests more than it served America's interests. And today, because of their military and political losses in Afghanistan, America does not have the strength and stomach to confront their real enemies. America's invasion of Afghanistan will be judged as a unique moment in history when America abandoned its own principles of "Realpolitick" and decided to pull someone else's chestnut out of the fire. The longer it stays in this fire, the more it will be burnt.

NATO Decision to Withdraw in 2014 would not deter the Afghans from Waging Jihad

13 December 2010

On 19th and 20th of November, the current year, NATO Secretary General announced in Lisbon that the NATO forces would withdraw from Afghanistan in 2014, handing over power to the Kabul Afghan Administration. The announcement came at the end of a meeting held in Lisbon which was also participated by the Russian Premier and UNO Secretary General. As far as the withdrawal of the American and NATO forces from Afghanistan is concerned, we can say it is the result of the decade-long legitimate struggle of the Afghans and thus good news for them. The invading Americans and their coalition attacked our country under a baseless and unjustified rationale. They perpetrated oppressions against our people and country for ten years, resorting to all kinds of brutalities but could not force the Afghans to surrender or at least weaken the momentum of the resistance. Though the Americans and NATO have announced their decision to withdraw from Afghanistan during the next four years but every sagacious human being knows that the Afghans had cornered the NATO and American forces during the past decade, killing thousand of their soldiers, causing their economic pillars to crumble; exposing veil from their deceptive and misleading slogans of humans rights advocacy, civil and political freedoms and other empty slogans. Similarly, the Afghans' legitimate struggle motivated other nations to rise against their arrogant rulers that why they were losing their brothers and sons and other members of their families in a meaningless and unjustified war. Though the foreign forces withdrawal from Afghanistan would start in 2014 according to the NATO member countries decision passed in Lisbon, but seeing the Jihad momentum and the firm determination of resistance of the Afghans, one could conclude that the conveners of the Lisbon meeting would one day wish alas we had announced the year 2011 as the precise year of withdrawal of forces from Afghanistan instead of the one already announced. This is because the Afghans are not ready to tolerate foreign occupation in their country even for an evanescent period. Furthermore, the Afghans do not trust the enemy that it would ever live up to its promise of withdrawal. According to an illustrated

American daily, the Christian Science Monitor, a number of Western military experts have criticized the prolongation of the war in Afghanistan for further four years, saying it would deal a dashing blow at the financial and budgetary deficit of America which is already in shambles. According to the daily, America would have to spend another astronomical portion of 413 billion dollars for the war in Afghanistan. This huge amount of money is not bearable in view of the current American financial crunch. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan believes, the NATO decision to withdraws from Afghanistan is the result of the victory of the current Jihad of the Afghans but at the same time, makes it known that none can distract their attention from the path of Jihad and struggle of independence until and unless the last foreign soldiers leave Afghanistan and the military threat is no more hovering over our country. Nor the invaders can achieve their nefarious goals through concoction of machinations and intrigues.

The Shameful Consequence of the phony Negotiation.

The Americans and the Britons are most conceited and pleased with their advanced military technology and their armed- to- the- teeth army and their economic strength. One of their main pillars is the existence of their espionage agencies which have been operating in all parts of the world, engaged in the filthy business of disintegrating integral nations, disseminating dissensions and creating rifts among people and giving rise to religious and geographical differences. All people are aware of these anomalies.

These circles of devils left no stone unturned in Afghanistan during the past decade to achieve their goals, trying to play fraternal Afghans ethnicities against each other and thus ensure survival of the invaders and continuation of the occupation in the country. They want to unspin the thread of national unity of the Afghans; flare up lingual, racial and geographical motives while at the same time, weaken the spirit of Jihad and lessen the momentum of resistance against the invaders. But fortunately, during the past decade, their military technology, army, financial incentives and other intrigues faced smashing failure. Similarly, their intelligence dragnets and other conspiracies also botched up. The fatuous drama of negotiation is one of them. They have started this process with most fanfare for the past two years under various names and titles. They want to blunt the sacred slogan of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan through conspiracies and discredit it in the eyes of the Afghans. The Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan was on its guard against these intrigues of the Americans and their invading Allies. It is determined that it would never show its readiness for negotiation in conditions that the foreign forces are stationing in the country. As it is unveiled, America has a vortex of conspiracies up its sleeve which they concoct under the pretext of negotiation.

The Americans think that even a mere consent of the Islamic Emirate to talks in conditions of the presence of the foreign forces in the country is an achievement in itself which they want to use as a stunt politically and militarily.

The recent exposure of the fake Mullah Mohammad Mansur indicates how the Americans and other vested interested are bent on harming the image of the prominent figures of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan.

Observers believe that the exposure of the fake Mullah Akkhtar Mansour is a matter of shame for the Americans and their invading Allies. On the one hand, they engineered such a sophisticated conspiracy but on other hand, they ridiculously lacked adequate information and their knowledge about the would be participant in the negotiation was so much ludicrous that even an ordinary Afghan deceived them for 15 months, taking from them hundreds of thousand of dollars and sterling pounds.

To end, we want to tell the concoctors of conspiracies of CIA that the Islamic Emirate is not a foundation, the leaders of which you can buy with money or could deceive with your phony processes and fatuous slogans but their personalities are overwhelming with the Islamic faith and real Afghan spirit. They have a strong resolve to forge ahead with the Jihad and keep on the face-off with the enemy. Either they will lay down their lives or compel the enemy to flee the territory of the Afghans.

A few realities about the demise of Imperialist America...!!

On 4 of December 2010, Obama arrived at Bagram Airbase for two and half hours and after consulting the invading NATO and American commander (Petraeus), Karl Eikenberry and other senior officials, went to a newly built hospital inside the airbase which treats mentally ill soldiers who have succumbed to emotional and physiological problems due to the intensity of the Afghan war and met some of those soldiers who were under treatment.

Obama also met those unstable soldiers, whose hands and feet were tied with chains and used to curse everyone who came in contact with them! Obama was also abused by these nutcases!! They warmly welcomed him with a great cussing fanfare!!! Seeing Obama bewildered by the state of his soldiers, Petraeus quickly took him out of the hospital and stood him on the podium where 4000 soldiers had been bundled up to listen to his 2010 end of year speech...

Obama declared in his speech:

I know it's not easy for all of you to be away from homes, especially during the holidays! And I know it's hard on your families that you are thousands of miles away and in a difficult situation!! I am here to raise your determination and to tell you that the Taliban momentum has been broken!! Today we can be proud that there are fewer areas under their control! Suddenly his eyes fill with tears..... And says with a quivery voice: You need to take out the Taliban leadership!! I don't need to tell you this is a tough fight but we all are depending on you and I know that you are facing a very cunning enemy!!

Yes! It is a reality that American is facing the most sensitive period of its history. It is burning in the fire it lit with its own hands which has made its politicians, intellectuals and administration very nervous, stressed and jittery!! And its soldiers have become so tired of fighting that every new soldier arrives with a crushed spirit. And that, only after many incentives, enticements, promises, assurances and a big paycheck! Yet they still look for a ways and lies to avoid coming to Afghanistan!

In 2009, when 35 thousand additional troops were approved for Afghanistan, 55 percent refused to go under false pretexts and excuses! And why shouldn't they decline, especially after being witnesses to te the hundreds of dead soldiers arriving at airports in coffins every day!!

There have been many facts and figures exposed by the Arabic, Farsi, Pashto and English media which I would like to share right here:

From the year 2001 until March of 2009, 7874 American soldiers, 184 commandoes (special force), 1686 marines and 260 air-force personnel have been killed which gives a grand total of 9496. In 2010, 877 American soldiers have been killed in Helmand alone. This figure is taken from the dead soldiers whose corpses have been put in 'pretty' coffins and taken back to American airports where they are received with salutes and respects which have become a norm. So how could those American soldiers go to Afghanistan who are witnessing these scenes?!

In light of these reports, from 16 of February to 15 March 2010, 1391 American corpses reached their homes making it the bloodiest period for the invaders in Afghanistan! This report indicated that the most astonishing fact during this 31 day period was the economic damage caused by Taliban attacks which targeted 210 armored vehicles, 60 tanks, 30 fuel tankers, 5 spy planes and 12 apache helicopters. The number of wounded and mentally ill in the past 9 years has not even been mentioned. The report did however mention that most of the soldiers returning back to their homes from Afghanistan have turned insane due to the psychological harm from the mission! And many others brains have been rendered useless and paralyzed.

Yes! The forces of the world's 'super power' are resorting to drugs as a healing method!! The American government has so far used 950 billion dollars to treat these soldiers, which has been futile so far!! They have used all technology, science and experiments at its disposal to deal with this disease, but it has failed to control or improve their physical or mental state. In fact, 35 percent of soldiers are abusing drugs. Doctors have concluded that the reason for rampant drug abuse is coming in contact with powerful blasts and depressing!

To validate this, reputable sources say: 22 thousand soldiers, who have returned from Afghanistan, are suffering from anxiety. Of the returnee from the year 2007, 121 have been successful in committing suicide while 2100 have either failed or were stopped in their attempt. Another illness has also arisen in the ranks of American soldiers which has Pentagon very nervous, desertion. A lot of American soldiers take leave to go home but then fail to return to their units! And some soldiers inside units encourage their comrades to rebel against their commanders!!

This is the state of the most professional, well trained army which has earned the wrath of Allah SWT. This is the result of curse of those innocent Muslims who have been and are being abused by these criminals in Abu Ghuraib, Guantanamo and Bagram prisons! Now that we see America head deep in another quagmire!! Our conviction in Allah is made even firmer:

(...And they thought that their fortresses would defend them from Allah! But Allah's (Torment) reached them from a place whereof they expected it not, and He cast terror into their hearts, so that they destroyed their own dwellings with their own hands and the hands of the believers. Then take admonition, O you with eyes (to see).) Surah Hashr, Verse 2.

A British colonel (Mark Charlton Smith) has also confirmed these accounts by saying that allied forces can never achieve any major victory in Afghanistan. His words indicate that victory is not in their fate...

Similarly, on 13 December 2010 (USA Today) through Pentagon said that there have been 17000 attacks on coalition forces this year, which is a two fold increase from last year at a time when there are still 17 days left in the current year. These spectacular failures compelled Obama to visit Afghanistan on 04 December in the cover of darkness in order to boost his troop's morale but the opposite effect took place and he left for Washington, overwhelmed and defeated!!

Obama's Annual Review of the Afghanistan Strategy Inflated and Wishful

Last week, US president Obama tried to show the ground realities of the war in Afghanistan distortedly in the eyes of the people of the world, the Americans and the Afghans. This he did in an effort to produce an inflated review of the war in Afghanistan and the overall situation there. He manipulated his retreats, humiliation and failures in all parts of Afghanistan in a manner to appear as being gradual gains and advancement. Two American secretaries of State Department and the Defense, were standing besides him as false witnesses at a ceremony held at the White House to unveil the annual strategy review. He wanted to show that the current year was a period of hopes and gains in comparison with the last year, saying they had had spectacular achievements both at military and political fronts.

In his efforts to justify the current American illegitimate and contemptible war in Afghanistan in a 5-pages review, American president Obama, could not produce or present any proof and reason to indicate a concrete and tangible change and advancement in the country that has occurred this year and which the world does not know as yet. American generals and NATO high-ranking officials admit that, that their casualties graph has spiraled up threefold comparing previous years. The Muahideen have become more strengthened; their fighting manpower has increased; their media is now more effective and their influence among the masses has augmented.

As far as the political front is concerned, the public opinions at world level go against the current war of Afghanistan. Pressing oppositions to the war raise up from all parts of the world, urging the Afghan war could not be won through military muscles showdown. At the diplomatic front, this is an achievement for the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan. On the other hand, the NATO recent meeting in Lisbon and the decision to withdraw foreign forces from Afghanistan in 2014, itself negates the boastful annual review of Obama and are concrete proofs, refuting his bragging.

The public opinion in America and Europe, in general, condemn the war of Afghanistan and consider the strategy of Obama as being meaningless. Therefore, some close allies of America are determined to pull their forces out of Afghanistan until the end of 2011. Verily, Obama is feeling jittery on seeing the new developments and thinks America is going to face being left abandoned in the time to come, so in his annual review, he falsely claimed that another event on the line of 9/11 is in the offing. We should prevent it from happening and should not end the war in Afghanistan. This he did in order to compel his Allies to carry on the current war. Furthermore, a recent opinion poll conducted by CBC and Washington Post reveals 65% Americans are in favor of pull-out of Americans troops from Afghanistan. This has made American secretary of Defense Robert Gates run amok, telling media in reaction to the poll, the other day, we know our mission and vision very well and are not going to allow public opinion to get in its way. Observers believe, Obama annual review of the strategy is devoid of facts and grounds realities. It is an inflated and fatuous propaganda stint through which he tries to hide his failures; distract the attention of the public of America and the world and keep the public opinions engaged in an illusive hope. But all are aware that the American rulers are grappling with deep worries and trouble and feel being left in the lurch. A clear example for our claim is Holbrook's death-bed confession and his speaking of problems and worries in the war of Afghanistan and calling for its peaceful solution.

October 7 is Continuation of December 27

29 December 2010

31 years ago, on 27 December, the Red Army of the former Soviet Union invaded the land of the Muslim Afghan people by violating its sanctity. They resorted to committing genocide, torture and oppression against the miserable people of Afghanistan soon after that. For ten years, they had been carrying out brutalities and atrocities. But with the help of Allah (SwT) and the sacrifices of 1.5 million Afghans, the Red Army was forced to pull out of Afghanistan. Not only that. Many Muslim and non-Muslim countries which were chafing under the yoke of communism for many decades, found their independence once more. Thus the empire of atheism broke into smithereens.

Today the former Soviet union is no more thanks to the Jihad of the Afghans, nor traces of the Warsaw military pact exist but despite that, Afghanistan has been burning in the flames of war, notwithstanding the colossal sacrifices of 1.5 million martyrs of the Afghan people, immigration of 6 million Afghans and many millions becoming disabled, handicapped, with women becoming widows and mothers losing their sons.

This time NATO under the leadership of America have invaded Afghanistan by dint of 150,000 troops. They have unleashed atrocities and brutalities on the Afghans since 7 October 2001; have martyred more than 200,000 Afghans; have tortured hundreds of thousands of Afghans in prisons in Afghanistan and other countries. This spell of brutality has still been continuing.

Yesterday, the former Soviet Union's Red Army had occupied our country under the tutelage of Warsaw Pact but today the Americans have taken the land of the Afghans as hostage under the arrangement of NATO. Yesterday, the Russians claimed, there was a foreign interference in Afghanistan and called the armed opposition as the mischief-makers but today America calls her invasion of Afghanistan as a war on terror and calls the armed opposition as terrorists. Yesterday, the Russians had usurped the freedom and our national independence and used to determine the fate of Afghanistan in the corridors of Kremlin but today, the Americans have left the Russians behind in their brazenness to clasp the fate of Afghanistan in their reprehensible tentacles. The fate of Afghanistan is determined in Washington, London and Bruxel. Yesterday a flag had been hoisted on the presidential palace in Kabul which was claimed to be the flag of Afghanistan and today another stooge flag is fluttering on the presidential palace. The Russians said, their presence in Afghanistan had not negated the independence of Afghanistan.

American and NATO officials claim the presence of 150,000 troops and the current brutalities unleashed by them to be the signs of their friendship and sympathy. They do not consider the presence of troops as a foreign force. A few elements who are Afghans by name only, called the Russian forces as being the friends of Afghanistan in an effort to support their presence in the country. Today, some debased elements who are Afghans by name condone the presence of thousands of soldiers of America and NATO. They are trying to find a palatable interpretation for the callous military operations, aerial bombardment, detentions and violation of the Afghan values. The invading Americans carve out justifiable pretexts for these atrocities. But the Russians including the Warsaw Pact along with their tactics and strategies, brutalities, surrogates like Khalq and Parchm failed to afford constantly facing the Mujahid Afghan people but received a historical defeat. Their mastership at world level came to an end. Today, the Americans are following the footsteps of the former Soviet Union and hovering over the moribund edge of erosion--their strength played out, their arrogance is on the collapse and their ambitions of mastership debilitating. They are seeking a way out of the country.

While condemning both the invaders and their lackeys of the 27 December and showing our deep resentments in this regard, we pay our deep tribute to the sacrifices of the Afghan Mujahid people. We believe October 7 was continuation of December 27 invasion. The Americans and NATO will face the fate of the former Soviet Union and the world will be saved from their claws of mischief-making and colonialism.

Black be the faces of the invaders and the puppets of the invasions both of 27 December and 7 October.

2011 Will be the Year of Victory for the Afghan Mujahid People

5 January 2011 05:07

Enemies of the Afghan Mujahid people and the occupiers of our hero-bearing land admit now that 2010 was a year of troubles, casualties and worries for them. The Arab News reports that Pentagon has conceded that in 2010, American casualties in Afghanistan in terms of fatality and injuries had gone up from hundreds into thousands. They say, Taliban's strength and movability has increased.

Pentagon and the American war machine now have to disclose the facts about the war of Afghanistan which they were not willing in the past to unveil or admit. They thought that the repeated launching of strategies by Obama would achieve some tangible gains in 2010 to become stuff for domestic and global consumption and, meanwhile, show advancement at military and political fronts. Contrarily, the Mujahideen frustrated the vastly trumpeted operations of Kandahar and Helmand by using their minuscule cache of weapons and ammunitions and relying on the help of the Almighty Allah (SwT). These operations were being carried out under the direct supervision and command of Obama and the British Prime Minister. Moreover, the operations of Mujahideen continued against the invaders in all parts of Afghanistan successfully throughout 2010 on the basis of a triumphant strategy, which had far less casualties for the Mujahideen. They dealt constant blow at the invaders in every part of the country, dumbfounding the enemy to know which part of a province and district have the most concentration of the Mujahideen forces.

The Mujahideen regularly targeted their enemies in every area, village, highway, plantation field, every ravine and gorge all around the clock. The invaders perceived every inch of the country as being an apparition of threat and danger. As result, in November last year, in the Portuguese capital Lisbon, the NATO Summit decided to withdraw foreign forces from Afghanistan in 2014.

Obama sent General Petraeus to Afghanistan to conduct the war as he was the most experienced and eminent general in the eye of Obama. He tried vainly in 2010 to terrorize The Afghans by implementing the American shock and awe policy, resorting to aerial bombardment, destruction of villages and localities and civilian genocide. He thought the people would abstain from supporting the Mujahideen. However, far from turning away from the support of Mujahideen, the common people's unstinted support to Mujahideen increased manifold in comparison with the past years.

The support was so strong and close that the invaders were not able to tell the common man from a Taliban. On the other hand, the Americans spread the rumors and conspiracy of negotiation in 2010, claiming that some officials of the Islamic Emirate have had contacts with them and that some rounds of the talks had already taken place in some undisclosed places and the next rounds were to be held soon. This ploy of the American also went awry with the help of the Almighty Allah(SwT) and had no achievement. They were not able to lure even an active group commander or a low-ranking official of the Islamic Emirate to entangle him in their cobweb or beguile him through the hypes of negotiation.

It was due to this commitment and dedication of the Mujahideen and their leaders with the Jihad and the Islamic Emirate that last week, the New York Time reported, the Taliban now have more unity and coordination among themselves.

In view of the status quo characterized by casualties and setbacks to the enemy and with the public opinions being against the war, what Obama and Petraeus expect to achieve in 2011 which would turn the tide in their favor or vice versa, is it not that they may face more humiliating setbacks and retreats? Those who have sagacity can draw a conclusion now that Afghanistan has become a hotbed of death, destruction and collapse for the Americans and no strategy by Obama will ever change it to their advantage nor the genocide launched by Petraeus will terrorize it into submission or control it. Contrarily, 2010I will be the year of victory for the Afghan Mujahideen with the help of the Almighty Allah (SwT) . The pure blood of the Afghan Muslim nation will bring in yield in the current year, if God willing.

Peace Council's Efforts, Symbolic and Dictated

11 January 2011

The commission constituted under the name of peace high council has a specific duty in the light of the American military strategy and is toeing the line in tandem. In the current week, a high level delegation of the council made a symbolic trip to neighboring Pakistan where they claimed to have had fruitful and meaningful talks with officials of the country.

The very structure and endeavors of the peace high council is cosmetic, being part and parcel of the American war strategy in view of the fact that they do not consider the withdrawal of foreign forces from Afghanistan as their main objective nor they recognize it as an important and vital item of the agenda. However, it is the essential demand of the majority people of Afghanistan and of the region. Still more, they do not follow a roadmap that would lead to a decisive stage where peace and reconciliation will become a must and indispensable. Contrarily, they continue their ineffective and fruitless efforts aimed at paving the way for the American and other foreign forces to stay in Afghanistan; to prolong the occupation and keep the war unabated. If the council wants, in earnest, to usher in peace in Afghanistan and put an end to the fighting, they should, first and foremost, reach a conclusion with the Americans who have taken the "peace" as hostage that whether they are ready to respect and accept a solution based on pull-out of their forces from Afghanistan?

Currently, not only the Afghans but the people of the region, America and the West want this war to be stopped immediately and Afghanistan must be delivered from the claws of the invading foreign forces. But the Americans are not ready to come down from the saddle of their stubbornness and brutality. Sometimes, they unveil their ambition of continuing the occupation for another four years; sometimes, they speak of sending new cache of weapons, surveillance aircrafts and re-enforcement. Even some American senators unfurl their pipedream of maintaining permanent bases in Afghanistan and put up notions in this regard.

We ask the steering high-up and members of the peace council, could you produce your single tangible proposal that has ever extracted a positive response from the Americans? Was there any point in the review of the Obama's war strategy for the years 2010-2011 to show their intention of conceding any importance to peace? If so, the peace council would have had the space to perform their task in its true sense and context and the Americans would have supported them. But, it seems, the establishment of the peace council is part of the war strategy of Obama. The American troops and the Kabul hireling army and security apparatus are engaged in killing and torturing the Afghan Mojahid people. They want to uproot the Jihad and the peace council, with a palatable diplomacy and stratagems, simultaneously want to weaken it. Allah, forbid, they want the Mujahideen to crumble. But we ask the Almighty Allah (SwT) to foil this conspiracy like your other conspiracies and face it with shame and humiliation. Thus the fact may come to open that you are not supporters and seekers of peace but lining your pockets with dollars and grabbing lucrative slots.

You are those well-known faces who have trampled down on their history, identity and honor to achieve these targets. You sold the country to the Americans; you called the Western democracy of nakedness as being in agreement with Islam. You are trying to beef up its continuation and, last, you serve as spice and pepper to season the present dispensation.

How the 1,400 Troops Re-enforcement Could Uplift the Sagging Morale of 120,000 American Troops.

18 January 2011

According to a report in the New York Times, Pentagon is intending to send 1,400 more soldiers to Afghanistan in the current year 2011, presumably to fill up the vacuum existing in the ranks of the American army— a vacuum which is the result of the tips-and-runs attacks of the Mujahideen and increase in their strength during the previous year. The Pentagon claims that the surge of the troops in Afghanistan will carry out special raids and effective operations against the Mujahideen in the current year but it is not true. The fact is that the Americans faced huge material and life casualties last year, reaching an unprecedented level in the past nine years period. It was expected that the Americans would try to replenish the vacuum to an extent by resorting to a fresh surge. As to the Pentagon's claim that the new 1,400 troops will take part in special operations against the Mujahideen, we could only say, it is futile and meaningless. During the past nine years, Pentagon has not left any stone unturned in using all tactics and stratagems which their brutal imagination could envisage. They have not spared committing any crime including battles against the Mujahideen; torturing them; engineering surreptitious conspiracies; launching political plays; perpetrating genocide against the Afghans people; detaining the common Afghans and destroying their plantations, properties, hearths and homes. So we can say, the fresh surge by the Pentagon is not a new initiative but aimed at replenishing the void that has been created by the fatalities and injuries of the American troops during the past year. There seems no other rationale behind the re-enforcement.

If we look at facts, we know that Pentagon will not be able to fill up the vacuum of the troops casualties by a fresh surge of 1,400 troops. Every one knows the fact, that during the past year, some undeniable events took place and even American sources and the American spokesmen at Bagram Airbase have confirmed them. Furthermore, some sources put the American troop's fatality during the last year at 3,000 soldiers. However, other substantiated evidence on hand and the Mujahideen's data show the casualties were many times higher than the ones revealed.

Granted, if even they are able to fill up the vacuum by the miniscule 1,400 troops surge, then what about another vacuum that the American troops in Afghanistan are grappling with right now, and that is the problem of sagging morale: the descending psychological conditions and the fear of war. What does Pentagon think that, will the re-enforcement of 1,400 troops prove to be an effective panacea to fill the gap and what breakthrough they are going to make during 2011? Contrarily, these extra 1,400 troops will suffer from low morale when they join the American troops stationed there and hear their stories and accounts of armed clashes with the Taliban. The war of Afghanistan and the Jihad environ prevailing there will teach them exemplary lessons that it will be difficult to tell their condition from the already stationed troops which have been crumbled at the hands of the Mujahideen.

The troops of the fresh surge and the previous ones will be quashed thanks to the well-known Afghan willpower that their war specialties and tactics of special operations will be of no use any more. By then, they themselves will seek the way of escape from Afghanistan if Allah willing.

The Greenery of Band-e-Sarda, fallen prey to the American terror

Band-e-Sarda, one of the most important dams in Afghanistan, that produces energy and is regarded an important agricultural project, is located between the province of Ghazni and Paktika and belongs to the Andar district of Ghazni.

Nearly half a century ago this dam was constructed on the rivers flowing from the province of Paktia and Ghazni, endorsing agricultural planning and various fruit crops. The farming land has a well constructed irrigation plan which irrigates a spacious agricultural land through paved (cemented) canal system.

Due to the abundance of water and fertile soil, as time passed by the area around the dam became one of the country's known agricultural and forest land. Many fruitful trees were planted along the canals and roadways which resulted in thick forest like greenery in the area. A couple of years before the 'World Environment Watch' demanded to take measures in order to insure the safety of greenery and water around Band-e-Sarda because the area is a habitat for different birds species.

Unfortunately the Band-e-Sarda's greenery which survived thirty long years of fighting in Afghanistan could not make it through the American aggression in Ghazni province's Andar district. It's been reported by some local individuals on condition of anonymity that the American soldiers have started deforestation of the area and are cutting down the trees which also includes fruit bearing trees. According to some reports thousands of trees have been cut down that were along a 3000 meter highway in Khane-kala, around Nizam Karwal, Sini-kala and many other places in Andar district which puts an end to the greenery in the area and has destroyed the habitat of many living things.

We must say that the above mentioned figures are according to some eyewitnesses, and the Americans are still pursuing this criminal act, and if the World Environment Protection Watch does not take any steps to prevent this crime, more harm might be caused to the greenery of Band-e-Sarda.

The deforestation and destruction of fruit bearing trees by American forces is not only limited to the Andar district, in the past years countless number of trees have been cut down that were along the Kabul Kandahar highway in the areas of Maydan, Saidabad, Ghazni and Zabul. But sadly neither it was reported by any news agency nor was it taken into consideration by any environment protecting organization.

If the cruel operations like 'the Kandahar operation' and Band-e-Sarda terror continues to happen it might cause a long lasting damage to the beautiful and natural environment of Afghanistan. The natural environment in Afghanistan which has been basically harmed by the use of chemical weapons, years of drought and fighting, such planned and deliberate acts will worsen the catastrophe.
